PREFACE.

The Cabinet herewith offered to American Collectors is noticeable rather on account of the rarity and fine quality of its component units, than for number or variety of coins. For this reason especially, I feel no hesitancy whatever in offering the collection, even at a time when coin sales are following each other with the utmost rapidity, trusting, as I do, to the kind encouragement of the members of the various Numismatic societies, and other appreciative collectors, who, under similar circumstances, so well supported my former sales. Among the German coins will be found, for so small a sale, a large number of fine and rare Crowns, that speak well for the taste which guided their owner in the formation of his cabinet. The Luther medals, if few in number, are of the highest rarity, — in fact it may be said that only half of the number have previously been offered at public sales in the United States. The Siege pieces, equally rare, form one of the most interesting features of the sale. The Masonic medals, at the end of the catalogue, have been catalogued with accuracy and especial reference to Mr. Marvin's valuable work, while the few United States Mint coins in the collection, need no introduction to appreciative connoisseurs. In the matter of preservation, I have exercised the most scrupulous care, and for the sake of information have made a few references to the following Numismatic works : —

Maillet. — Monnaies Obsidionales, etc.; giving plate and number.

Schulthess Rechberg.—Thalersammlung, abbreviated Schulth., and giving number.

The same.—Catalogue of Auction Sale, abbreviated C. Sch.

Barthelemy.—Numismatique Moderne, abbreviated Barth.

Marvin.—Medals of the Masonic Fraternity, abbreviated M.

In conclusion, I will state that every coin in this sale is warranted genuine and authentic, unless otherwise mentioned.

RARE MASONIC MEDALS.

The name of the Lodge for which the Medal was struck is given in Italics immediately after the place where located.

786 FRANCE. Donai. Parfaite Union, 1802. Three triangles interlaced. Bronze, very good. Size 13. (M. 118.)

787 Paris. Point Parfait, 5760. Pyramid and emblems. Rev., Serpent ring, etc. Bronze; rare in good condition; this is very fine. Size 18. (M. 164.)

This is not described by Merzdorf.

788 Paris. Amis Incorruptibles, 1785. Phenix. Rev., Cypher. Bronze, very good. Size 17. (M. 73.)

789 Paris. Union de Famille, 5786. Temple, skull, crossbones, etc. Rev., Square and compasses. Octagonal jeton. Bronze. Obv., Fine. Rev., Shows break in die. Rare. Size 18. (M. 171.)

Unknown to Merzdorf.

790 Paris. St. Eugene, 5805. Blazing star in wreath. Rev., Sun in splendor. Bronze, fine. Size 17. (M. 75.)

Merzdorf says the date below the sun is in two lines. This is in but one.

791 Paris. St. Alexandre, 1805. Radiant triangle. Rev., Emblematic. Bronze, very fine for this piece, which is scarce. Size 18. (M. 135.)

The Lodge is not named on the Medal except by its initials. This is a combination of dies unknown to Merzdorf.

792 Paris. Sept Ecossais, 5809. Serpent ring, and cross. Rev., Square and compasses in rays. Copper, fine. Size 18. (M. 53.)

793 Paris. Grand Orient. Eagle on fasees. Rev., Serpent ring, and radiant delta. Silver, nearly proof, rare. Size 19. (Obv., M. 170. Rev., M. 169.)

This mule is not mentioned by Merzdorf, who describes both dies with other combinations. Struck about 1806.

794 Paris. Rigides Observateurs, 5818. Pillars, temple, etc. Rev., Serpent ring, and three gavels. Copper, scaree. Very good. Size 17. (M. 232.)

795 Paris. Amis de la Patrie. (no date.) Pillars, etc. Rev., Square and compasses in wreath. Bronze, fine. Size 18. (M. 224.)

Unknown to Merzdorf.

796 Paris. Admirateurs de l'Univers, 5836. Globe, etc. Rev., Square and eompasses. Silver. Proof. Size 13.

Similar to M. 227, but not yet described by him. Unknown to Merzdorf.

797 Rouen. Parfaite Egalite, 1795? Skeletons of prinee and peasant. Rev., Square and eompasses, etc. Silver, fine, and very rare from perfeet dies. Size 20. (M. 91.) (See cover 3d page for cut.)

798 Rouen. Verite, 1835. Truth, typified by naked female. Rev., Pillars, etc. Copper, scaree. Size 18. (M. 96.)

Unknown to Merzdorf.

799 Rouen. Ardente Amitie. Altar with burning heart. Rev., Ivy vine round dead tree. Silver. Oetagonal jeton. Size 20. (M. 99.)

800 Versailles. Militaires Reunis. Trophy. Rev., Three triangles interlaced. Bronze, fine. Size 18. (M. 237.)

801 GERMANY. Berlin. Centennial of Initiation of Fred. Wm. Bust of Prince. Rev., Altar, etc. Bronze, fine, rare. Size 26. (M. 362.)

802 Hamburg. St. George, 1843. Centennial. Silver, rare in this metal. Size 23. (M. 113.)

803 BELGIUM. Liege, 5869. To visiting brethren. Arms of the city and Masonic emblems. Rev., Triangle and inscription. Copper, pierced, as are all we have ever seen; otherwise very fine. Size 16. (M. 41.)

804 Brussels? 1876. Centennial struek in honor of Ameriean Masons. Head of Columbia. Rev., Inscription. Bronze, very fine. Size 23. (M. 86.)

805 ITALY. Rome, 5742. Bust of Folkes. Rev., Pyramid of Cestius, emblems, etc. Bronze, very fine. Size 23. (M. 482.)

This Medal is quite scarce in any condition. It is curious that it should have been struck at Rome, so near the time of the Bull excommunicating the Freemasons. The dies are reputed to have been cut by Hamerani, the famous engraver of the Papal Mint. This is a much better impression than one which sold for $4.63 in my September sale.

806 AMERICA. Springfield, Mass. Dedication of Temple, June 24, 1874. Tin, silvered, proof, scarce. Size 18. (M. 287.)

The dies of this Medal were cut by J. A. Bolen, and are said to have broken when but few were struck.

THE

Medals of the Masonic Fraternity,

Described and Illustrated

BY

W. T. R. MARVIN.

A descriptive Catalogue, with nearly twenty plates of rare and interesting Medals, is now in course of publication by the undersigned. The list will contain descriptions of between six and seven hundred Masonic Medals, with full indexes, so that any piece catalogued can be easily found. References to corresponding numbers in Merzdorf's (German) work, and a chapter on the Freemasons' Arms, with an illuminated plate in proper colors, copious notes (historical, biographical, &c.), will give additional value to the work, which will contain about three hundred pages, cap quarto.

One hundred and sixty copies only printed.

One hundred and twenty five only for sale, exclusively by subscription. Price, complete, $10, payable $5, at time of subscription, and balance on delivery of III. and IV. parts. Part I. and II. now ready. Part III. and IV. in press, and will be ready shortly. If sent by mail, postage, 8 cents for each part, additional.

SEND FOR A CIRCULAR.

W. ELLIOT WOODWARD,

Roxbury, Mass.

Printed Price Lists of this Sale may be obtained after the Sale at Twenty cents each. Twenty-five copies of this Catalogue are printed on heavy paper, with printed prices, and may be obtained after the Sale at Seventy-five cents each.
